

MONETARY

The library welcomes cash contributions, gifts or real property and stocks and bonds. The library expends cash gifts on materials, equipment or projects acceptable to the donor. Although unlikely, there may be an occasion in which the restrictions set by the donor make it impossible for the library to accept the gift. Gifts are accepted with the understanding that it may someday be necessary to sell or dispose of them in the best interest of the library. The library cannot commit to perpetually housing or retaining a gift. No gift can be accepted unless it is given to the library without restrictions or unless the Library Board has specifically adopted an agreement to do so. Gifts are accepted only in the opinions of the Library Director or Library Board that they are in the best interest of the library.
